

MEET ANGEL

Angel partners with executives of world leading companies to help their people, leaders and organizations perform

Angel Gomez believes that individual and collective performance is driven by work that is meaningful and worthwhile — that one’s work must have purpose. This belief and his unique, collaborative approach, shaped by 20 years of diverse professional experiences, has made him a trusted partner to some of the world’s leading companies who count on him to create better people, better leaders, and better organizations. Through his speeches, workshops, consulting, coaching sessions, and social media channels, Angel has helped thousands of people accelerate their performance.

Before launching his practice in 2008, Angel served as the Vice President of Human Resources for the Midwest Division of Walmart Stores, Inc. located in Chicago, Illinois. In that capacity, Angel developed strategies, processes, and practices that enabled the $55B business unit to achieve its business objectives by leveraging its human capital. Angel previously served as the Director of Associate Training and Communications for Walmart, as well as the Director of Internal Diversity Relations for the Office of Diversity, and was responsible for launching diversity training and the company’s affinity group programs.

Angel joined Walmart Stores, Inc. in 2004, after a successful legal career in private practice and the organized bar. Angel was a partner at Seyfarth Shaw, LLC, where he focused his practice on EEO Compliance Training and Diversity Consulting. Before joining Seyfarth Shaw, Angel was a founding partner of Castro Gomez Durbin & DeJesus, LLC, a law firm focused on Commercial and Tort Litigation. From 2001 to 2002, Angel served as National President of the Hispanic National Bar Association, representing the interests of more than 25,000 Hispanic attorneys, judges, law professors, and law students throughout the United States. and Puerto Rico. Before serving as President, Angel was appointed the National Convention Chairman for the HNBA’s 25th Anniversary Convention in Chicago, Illinois.

“I believe that performance is driven by work that is meaningful and worthwhile—that one’s work must have purpose.”

Angel received his Bachelor of Arts in 1991 and his Juris Doctor in 1994, both from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. There, he received the College of Law’s 1992 Best Oral Advocate Award and the 1994 Rickert Award for Excellence in Oral Advocacy. As a law student, Angel taught public speaking and coached the undergraduate Mock Trial Team. Later he served as an Adjunct Professor of Appellate Advocacy at Loyola University School of Law in Chicago in 2004. Angel has been recognized by several organizations including the Hispanic Alliance for Career Enhancement with its Maestro Award in 2014, and Hispanic Business Magazine, which in 2002 named him one of the Most Influential Hispanics in the United States.

ANGEL CAN HELP YOU:

GROW

- Accelerated Leadership Development
- Impactful Management Skills Training
- High-Performance Team Workshops
- Comprehensive Leadership Programming

LEAD

- Business Strategy & Execution
- Strategic Meeting Facilitation
- Team Alignment & Performance
- Performance Management

PERFORM

- Accelerated Executive Coaching
- Collective Team Coaching
- Talent Management Execution
- Organizational Development & Effectiveness